

The next TEA (Taxed Enough Already) Party is to be held on > SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 14 from 10:00 AM - NOON at the PAVILION
> IN LEONARD PARK. We were not able to use the courthouse this > time due to some construction issues. Please tell everyone > you know to be there and voice their concerns. Pass this > letter on to others and contact your local media. Maybe if > enough of us contact them we can get someone there. Bring a > lawn chair.
> As time marches forward, so do those who seek to tear down > the written landmarks upon which our nation was founded. The > Constitution, The Supreme Law of the Land, is under attack.
> Amendment I says that "Congress shall make no law > respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the > free exercise thereof; or abridging the freedom of speech, > or of the press, or the right of the people peaceable to > assemble, and to petition the government for a redress of > grievances."
> Currently we are witnessing the attack by our own President > and Congress on news organizations and talk show hosts that > don't agree with them, and also the constant slander of > American citizens who choose to gather peaceable and voice > their opposition to legislation in TEA Parties and Town Hall > Meetings.
> Every elected official takes an oath agreeing to uphold our > Constitution. Yet it has lately been up to the average > American citizen to do just that. And as we have worked to > spread the word to our friends and neighbors about what this > Administration is doing, we have seen the momentum build.
> The TEA Party held in Gainesville on July 4 had between > 50-75 people in attendance. On September 11 we had between > 150-200 people. I have had many phone calls asking "What can > I do?" and friends asking how to get involved.
> Residents in our area are doing what Americans all over > this great nation are doing, preserving our Constitutional > Rights and educating ourselves and our friends. Let's > continue to move forward!
>
> What does a TEA Party accomplish? Two things.

- >
- > 1. It educates those in attendance on current issues and
- > encourages them to make a difference.
- > 2. It draws attention as the numbers grow and attracts
- > people who have not been involved or concerned before.
- >
- > What can you do?
- >
- > Speak from your heart. What is it that concerns you?
- > Whatever your issue of greatest concern, share it with your
- > friends, family, and your neighbors and show them how it
- > affects them. The issue has to be personal before most
- > people will take an interest.
- >
- > Forward this letter to everyone you can think of.
- >
- > Voice your concerns constantly to your elected officials,
- > local and national. Call the White House. Call Congress. Fax
- > letters. Send emails. Do it over and over.
- >
- > Our founders were relentless in their pursuit of freedom.
- > They sacrificed much because they were convinced that it was - > worth fighting of. They were also in the minority. They were
- > ridiculed, mocked, and worse. But they did not give up. We
- > cannot give up, either.
- >
- > The changes that are being proposed in Congress right now
- > are huge, future-altering changes that will turn America
- > into something we will not recognize. Don't let it happen.
- > IF these changes take place, they will be nearly impossible
- > to reverse. The time is NOW.
- >
- > " 'Tis not the concern of a day, a year, or an age;
- > posterity are virtually involved in the contest, and will be
- > more or less affected, even to the end of time, by the
- > proceedings now. " - Thomas Paine, Common Sense
